

Marc D. Leve

Of Counsel

New York, NY

(212) 500-1591

mleve@sillscummis.com

Marc D. Leve is Of Counsel to the Sills Cummis & Gross Corporate Practice Group and is resident in the Firm's New York office, where he structures, negotiates, drafts and closes mergers and acquisitions, factoring and other commercial financing transactions. In addition, Mr. Leve represents and advises business and financial clients with respect to trademarks and licensing, employment and other business, corporate and organizational matters.

Before joining Sills Cummis & Gross, Mr. Leve was an associate with the firm of Silverberg Stonehill Goldsmith & Haber, P.C., from 2001, where he was engaged in the firm's general corporate practice and assisted its litigation department with motion and appellate practice in selected business litigation and arbitration.

Prior to his association with Silverberg Stonehill Goldsmith & Haber, P.C., Mr. Leve was associated with a litigation boutique in New York, was the general counsel of a publicly-traded internet start-up, and was associated with the New York office of a Tel Aviv-based law firm. Prior to his admission to practice in New York in 1993, he practiced for several years in a commercial law firm in Tel Aviv, and served in the Israel Defense Forces as a military prosecutor with the rank of Lieutenant. Mr. Leve is fluent in Hebrew.

Practices

Corporate

Corporate Banking and Finance

Mergers and Acquisitions

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York

Education

LL.B., Bar Ilan University Law School

Bar Admissions

New York

Israel