Why You Should Attend

This consistently popular annual seminar—now over 30 years old but constantly fresh and relevant—is well known as the ideal event for in-house and outside counsel to come together, hear about new legal challenges they face in representing the companies they serve, and pick up new information to make them more effective business litigators and litigation managers. The seminar takes place over four days in a great venue and offers numerous cutting edge CLEs (including ethics), workshops, forums, business meetings, roundtables, luncheons, dinners, receptions, social events, and several other opportunities to meet, get to know, and spend time with some of the best in-house lawyers, outside litigation counsel, and judges in the country.

What You Will Learn at This Year's Meeting

- The road ahead through the eyes of GCs
- Insights on topics such as changes to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, preparing a 30(b)(6) witness, managing cyber security, expediting arbitration, managing big data, the art of witness preparation, compliance programs, ethical considerations for in-house counsel, building relationships with regulators, streamlining litigation involving social media, and navigating lender liability claims.
- Workshops on litigation budgets and negotiation techniques
- Peer-to-peer forum for in-house counsel only and forum on legal writing

Who Should Attend

- In-house litigation counsel looking to meet and learn from their peers and outside counsel
- Outside counsel looking to meet their peers and in-house and looking to learn what is on the minds of their clients and potential clients
- Any lawyer wanting to get timely, relevant CLE credit in a collegial atmosphere

Plenaries, Breakouts, Forums & Workshops

Thursday, February 11, 2016

CLE Plenary Session:
General Counsel Forum

5:00 pm – 6:15 pm

In this consistently popular program, outstanding general counsel from diverse industries candidly share their perspectives on developing trends in business and law, as well as how in-house and outside counsel can best serve the companies they represent.

Moderator: Laurence F. Pulgram

Speakers: Timothy R. Donovan, Nima Kelly, Steven R. Rodgers

Friday, February 12, 2016

CLE Session:
Cheaper and More Efficient Litigation
 Under the New Federal Rules

8:00 am – 9:15 am

The new Federal Rules of Civil Procedure dramatically change the scope of discovery, require more active case management, and create a new sanctions regime. Hear from Rules Committee members, judges, and practitioners on what these changes will do and how you can use them to save costs and expedite litigation.

Moderator: Jeffrey J. Greenbaum

Speakers: John M. Barkett, Elizabeth Cabraser, Hon. David G. Campbell, Laurence F. Pulgram

CLE Breakout Session:
Faster, Cheaper,
 Better Arbitration:
 The Delaware Rapid
 Arbitration Act &
 Beyond

9:40 am – 10:40 am

The new DRAA and the revolutionary alternatives it offers to traditional arbitration, whether in Delaware or elsewhere, promises extremely rapid resolution of business disputes. This panel will explore this new arbitration regime, its optimal uses, how you can use it in your jurisdiction, and when to avoid using it.

Moderator: Gregory V. Varallo

Speakers: Louis F. Burke, Mary Craig Calkins, I. Bobby Majumder, Alisa E. Moen

CLE Breakout Session:
Your Handbook for Effectively and Ethically Handling
 Commercial Lending
 Litigation (Ethics)

9:40 am – 10:40 am

Using recent commercial lending decisions as teaching aids, this diverse panel will impart litigation tips, practice aids, and best practices for in-house and outside lawyers when faced with commercial lending disputes.

Moderator: Zachary G. Newman

Speakers: Molly Newburn Booker, Nicole C. Davis, Kami M. Hoskins

CLE Breakout Session:
Hidden Dangers in the Early Stages of an Internal Investigation (Ethics)

9:40 am – 10:40 am

Conference panels often cover the entire (often completed) internal investigation process and after-the-fact assessments without delving too deep into any one area. This panel session will highlight the early stages of an internal investigation, which are often a critical time for organizations, and how to develop and maintain a good rapport with federal regulators. Seasoned speakers will address key questions that are often raised at the onset of an investigation, such as when to call outside counsel, how to sort the types of allegations, and whether to self-report. They will discuss the hidden, subtle and often under-appreciated dangers and the ethical and legal implications of management decisions.

Moderators: Brian Miller

Speakers: Roberto Braceras, Joan E. Meyer, Bernard Woolfley, Damian Wilmot

CLE Breakout Session:
Secure Your Data and Your Dollars: How to Effectively and Ethically Deal with a Cyber-Attacks (Ethics)

10:50 am – 11:50 am

Cyber-attackers are using increasingly sophisticated methods to steal data and initiate fraudulent wire transfers. What do these attacks look like? What is the best way to respond? What are the ethics traps to avoid? What can lawyers do to minimize risk and ethically secure their clients' information and money?

Moderator: Moses Vejlil

Speakers: Scott Ernst, Stephen E. Reynolds, Ashley A. Smith

CLE Breakout Session:
Sustainable Compliance: A Model for Preventing the Repeat (or Three-Peat)

10:50 am – 11:50 am

Corporate compliance programs tend to emphasize prevention and detection while often falling short on remediation; companies "fix" the specific violation but fail to learn from it. Learn how to practice "Sustainable Compliance," in which companies internalize and institutionalize lessons from past mistakes and engage internal stakeholders in creating a truly comprehensive remediation solution to avoid repeating compliance breaches.

Moderator: Marsha M. McIntyre

Speakers: Julie J. Gresham, Charles ("Chuck") A. Neff, Luis A. Reyes

CLE Breakout Session:
Town Hall Debate: Witness Preparation Re-Examined

10:50 am – 11:50 am

Most lawyers feel that, during depositions and cross, clients should keep their answers short, not volunteer information, and not answer ambiguous questions. But a new school of thought believes these witness preparation techniques belong in the past. Hear thought leaders debate each other—and the audience—on old vs. new ways of preparing clients to testify.

Moderator: Denise Zamore

Speakers: Kenneth R. Berman, Daniel Small

CLE Workshop:
Litigation Budgeting—Practical Advice and Useful Tools

1:15 pm – 2:30 pm

Litigation budgets are often the bane of existence for both in-house and outside counsel. Come to this workshop to hear from a litigation partner who spearheaded his firm's efforts to use in-house data to create more accurate budgets and from a legal project management consultant who will talk about using data-driven tools to benchmark legal expenses.

Speakers: Holly Montalvo, Patrick E. Premo

CLE Workshop:
Negotiation and Settlement Strategy in Major Business Litigation

1:15 pm – 2:30 pm

A workshop for litigators and in-house counsel involved in major business litigation. Topics will include the proper timing and approach to settlement discussions and the optimal use of traditional ADR processes, including mediation and the engagement of specialized settlement and negotiation counsel to pursue settlement while frontline trial counsel litigates.

Speakers: Christopher Nolland, Christopher Skelly

Saturday, February 13, 2016

CLE Plenary Session:
Teaching the Board of Directors and Corporate Counsel About Managing Cybersecurity

8:00 am – 9:15 am

Abundant survey evidence shows cybersecurity as a top concern of corporate directors and general counsel. Discover how companies should manage cybersecurity risks, including how to implement CISO reporting structures and cyber-incident response plans, navigate the patchwork of data breach notification laws, mitigate litigation risk after a data breach, and use cybersecurity insurance.

Moderator: David R. Singh

Speakers: Maja Berlin, Edwin B. Medlin, Harry Valetk

Plenaries, Breakouts, Forums & Workshops

CLE Plenary Session:
Can I Get A Witness?
 Speaking for the Company in Litigation

8:00 am – 9:15 am

A corporation may be a legal “person,” but it can only testify through individuals. This interactive program will show how to identify, prepare, and present a corporate witness effectively and will review recent—and scary—case law on the consequences of failing to prepare.

Moderator: David E. Cannella

Speakers: Elizabeth S. Fenton, Michael Lazinsk, Jilana L. Miller, Amy M. Stewart

CLE Breakout Session:
‘Busting’ Big Data
 With the 3 P’s: People,
 Process + Platforms

9:30 am – 10:30 am

Data volumes are skyrocketing, but costs don’t have to. In this session, learn how several large companies are managing huge volumes of information in their complex litigation, how they use process/project management and targeted collections to achieve consistency and reduce costs, and which technologies work best for which data.

Moderator: Eric Schultenover

Speakers: Susan Hammond, Martha Mazzone, Brian E. Seward

CLE Breakout Session:
Jeopardy? ... Press
 Your Luck? ... This Is Your Life! Ethical Considerations for In-
 House Counsel (Ethics)

9:30 am – 10:30 am

In-house counsel face a multitude of ethical quandaries on a day-to-day basis. This fast-paced program will cover a range of topics, including personal representation of individual employees, potential conflicts of interest, protecting the attorney-client privilege, the SEC’s recent guidance on non-disclosure agreements, and more.

Moderator: Joshua D. Jones

Speakers: Hassan A. Abedi, Dominique Bright-Wheeler, Dennis J. Capriglione

CLE Breakout Session:
Social Media
 and the Stored
 Communications
 Act: Protecting
 Your Company
 and Streamlining
 Litigation

9:30 am – 10:30 am

In light of the explosion of social media and its influence on the business world, corporations are increasingly faced with issues arising from social media. Both corporate counsel and outside counsel need to understand this evolving area of the law and be prepared to deal with the often challenging issues involved. This panel of litigators and in-house counsel will discuss common social media issues facing corporations and strategies for dealing with them.

Moderator: Nicole K. Atkinson

Speakers: JoAnn Dalrymple, Fabienne Fahnestock, Randy E. Hayman, Curtis Lu

Forum (Non-CLE):
Secrets of the Great
 Brief Writers

10:45 am – 12:00 pm

What are some of the best ways to make a good brief great? This dynamic workshop led by Ross Guberman shares concrete writing techniques and examples from the nation’s top brief writers. Guberman, a favorite speaker at law firms and judicial conferences, is the author of the acclaimed books Point Made for litigators and Point Taken for judges.

Leader: Ross Guberman

Forum (Non-CLE):
For In-House Counsel
 Only: Peer-to-Peer
 Open Forum Discussion

10:45 am – 12:00 pm

Candid, open forum discussion led by in-house counsel for in-house counsel on topics of shared interest. No outside counsel allowed, permitting the group to facilitate a more open discussion.

Sunday, February 14, 2016

CLE Plenary Session:
Litigation
 Management Roundtable

8:00 am – 9:15 am

A roundtable discussion, led by in-house and outside counsel, discussing the newest and best techniques to manage litigation and client expectations.

Moderator: Anthony J. Carriuolo

Speakers: John Childs, Leonard “Ladd” Hirsch, Sabrina Mizrahi, Kathleen Turland

Activities

Golf: All meeting attendees are welcome to play in our golf tournament on Saturday, February 13, 2016 at the Kierland Golf Club. The tournament will be a four-person scramble format with a shotgun start at 12:30 pm. Please sign up when you register for the seminar. The tournament fee is $230 per person, which includes greens fees, cart, range balls prior to play, lunch, and a golf goodie bag. If desired, the resort can arrange for your clubs to be delivered to the golf course upon check-in at the resort. Once you are signed up for the tournament, you will receive an email requesting your handicap, playing partner preferences, etc. Questions about the golf tournament should be directed to Maria Gamboa at maria.gamboa@americanbar.org. Finally, if you are interested in booking tee times of your own, please contact the golf shop directly at (480) 922-9283.

Desert Foothills – Friday Dinner Party: Enjoy dinner, entertainment, and panoramic sunset views while making new connections at this outdoor western-themed event. We encourage attendees to wear western attire to enjoy this experience. Comfortable shoes encouraged. Transportation will be provided. This ticketed event is $95 for adults and $45 for children.

Lawyer, Activist, Judge: Fighting for Civil and Voting Rights in Mississippi and Illinois

By Hon. Martha A. Mills (Ret.)

This book provides an inside look at the struggle for civil and voting rights in Mississippi and Cairo, IL, in the 1960s–70s from a trial lawyer’s perspective. The book takes a look at some major cases, including a million-dollar verdict against the Ku Klux Klan, milestone Supreme Court cases involving the 1871 Civil Rights Act and the 1965 Voting Rights Act, and more. Author Mills lived and worked in an ardent segregationist culture fraught with danger, filled with both heroes and villains.

Practice Points for Trial Lawyers: A View From Both Sides of the Bench

By Hon. Mark Allen Drummond

This book is designed for those who are or aspire to be trial lawyers, and those who are preparing to try cases. Judge Mark A. Drummond’s experience includes 20 years in front of the bench trying cases and another 15 years on the trial bench, which gives him a unique perspective. In addition, for 30 years Drummond has trained advocates from Tasmania to Tanzania, from Boston to Beijing. That includes large and small firms, corporations, the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, the U.S. Department of Justice, the Attorney General’s offices for Illinois and New York, and the Department of the Navy.

Preparing for Trial: 60 Days and Counting

By Bruce W. Felmly

In these days of the “vanishing trial,” when there are fewer opportunities to learn from the masters, this book is an invaluable guide for trial lawyers needing to focus, prioritize and prepare for that morning when they alone will say, “Ready, Your Honor.”

Avoiding Bad Depositions: A Simple Guide to Complex Issues

By Janet S. Kole

Janet Kole provides another short and helpful guide to litigation, this time to help you avoid mistakes—and malpractice claims—when preparing for depositions. The guide covers everything from what a deposition is to the key issues that arise both during witness preparation and the deposition itself.

Civil RICO: A Definitive Guide, Fourth Edition

By Gregory P. Joseph

This updated edition provides a concise yet thorough analysis of the major legal issues arising in civil actions litigated under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO).

To purchase, visit ShopABA.org or call (800) 285-2221.

Inside Straight: Advice About Lawyering, In-House and Out, That Only the Internet Could Provide

Mark Edward Herrmann

What happened when Above the Law recruited Mark Herrmann—a best-selling author, former BigLaw partner, and senior in-house lawyer—to write a twice-weekly column for the blog? Combine the insights of the author, the vitriol of the anonymous “commenters,” and the wisdom of crowds, and the result is this fascinating and revealing book.

The Attorney-Client Privilege, 5th Edition, Three-Volume Set

By Edna Selan Epstein

The Attorney-Client Privilege and the Work-Product Doctrine has helped thousands of lawyers through this increasingly complex area, providing a comprehensive overview of the current law of the attorney-client and work-product immunities.

Guide to Protecting and Litigating Trade Secrets

By Amy E. Davis, Paula M. Bagger, Joanna H. Kim, Jeffrey K. Riffer

This book focuses on several large jurisdictions in which trade secret cases are heavily litigated to illustrate the concepts, but the analysis also includes other jurisdictions to demonstrate the differing approaches to the treatment of trade secrets. In addition to a broader, more academic look at trade secret law, the book also draws on current, real-life examples of trade secret nightmares and the litigation experience of its primary authors to provide practical advice to the business owner, small legal department or firm, and solo practitioner.

Build Your Practice the Logical Way: Maximize Your Client Relationships

By Carol Schiro Greenwald Ph.D., and Steven Skyles-Mulligan

This how-to guide will help you tend to what is already most rewarding, both intellectually and financially, in your practice: the clients who value you most and with whom you most value working.

A Streetwise Guide to Litigation

By Kenneth P. Nolan

The law is a wonderful profession. It is also demanding and stressful and requires a multitude of talents—speaking, writing, researching, analyzing, advocating, and dealing with people. This engaging collection of articles, from author Kenneth Nolan, captures the insights and knowledge of an experienced litigator. It’s not the stuff you were taught in law school.

A Brief Guide to Brief Writing: Demystifying The Memorandum of Law

By Janet S. Kole

This book can be utilized as an outline or a refresher for any type of brief that must be written, whether it’s a main brief, reply brief, or sur-reply, and whether it’s a lower court or appellate brief. A Brief Guide to Brief Writing will enable brief writers to understand and tell the client’s story, in a persuasive and effective manner.
