

ICON HONORS

. CELEBRATING LEADERS OVER 60 .

Achievements:

A frequent lecturer at national seminars and institutes concerning tax fraud and white collar crime defense issues and selected for inclusion in the 2001-2019 editions of The Best Lawyers in America®.

Who inspires you?

My parents, Al and Augusta Horn. They taught me there is no substitute for hard work. My father often told me, if you do a job, do it correctly or don't do it at all. My parents taught me to treat every person with courtesy and respect.

What do you feel is your biggest contribution to the New Jersey business community?

Being retained by virtually every major law firm in Northern and Central New Jersey when it had a client who had serious problems with the Internal Revenue Service. I was basically of counsel in scores of cases to these firms

What is something you are totally passionate about?

Mentoring younger lawyers – especially women and minority attorneys by introducing them to senior members of the bar and taking them to federal court to meet judges.

What is the best decision you've made during your career?

Becoming an assistant United States attorney in 1971. That experience made me a seasoned trial lawyer and gave me the opportunity to gain a narrow specialty in litigating criminal tax cases.
